

2021-2022 RCR Training Series Schedule

Classroom Instruction

USA Faculty Club: 6350 Fincher Rd.

1. Research Misconduct ***

Thursday, November 4, 2021 (3:00 pm - 4:00 pm)

Julio Turrens, Ph.D.

Professor Emeritus of Biomedical Sciences

2. Grants Management and Fiscal Responsibility

Thursday, January 6, 2022 (3:00 pm – 4:00 pm)

Lindsey (Bubba) Sheffield

Manager, Grants and Contracts Accounting

3. Overview of Data Driven Research ***

Thursday, March 10, 2022 (3:00 pm - 4:00 pm)

W. Matthew Reichert, Ph.D.

Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry

Assistant Vice President, Office of Research Communications, Development and Learning

4. Overview of Scholarly Driven Research ***

Thursday, March 31, 2022 (3:00 pm - 4:00 pm)

Brian Whitener, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor, Modern & Classical Languages & Literature

5. Conflict of Interest ***

USA Canvas Online

Dusty Layton and Angela S. Williams

Executive Director and Assistance Director, Research Compliance and Assurance

6. Foreign Influence and Security ***

USA Canvas Online

David Furman

Director, Information Security Risk and Compliance

7. Rigor and Reproducibility ***

USA Canvas Online

Christopher Davies, Ph.D.

Associate Dean College of Medicine, Research

Effective beginning the 2021-2022 RCR training series, faculty engaged in research and other sponsored and unsponsored projects are required to attend, at minimum, two hours of instruction/sessions each fiscal year

(October-May). The training topics will vary from year to year. Faculty must complete the following core sessions within a five (5) year period. * The required core sessions must be repeated every five years.

1. Overview of Data Driven Research ~~or~~ Overview Scholarly Driven Research 2. Research Misconduct 3. Foreign Influence and

Security 4. Conflict of Interest 5. Rigor and Reproducibility (not required for faculty only involved in unsponsored research)